General Guidelines for Institute's Examination

1. Number of Examinations	As approved by the Senate, the institute will conduct One Minor and One Major Examination.
2. Dates of Examination	The dates of examination can be seen in the Program-wise Academic Calendars available at: http://academics.iitj.ac.in/?page_id=528
3. Time Table & List of Students	• The Office of Academic Affairs will share the Examination Time-Table and List of Students who have registered for the courses for examination. • Courses like: Project (B.Tech. & M.Tech.), Lab Courses, Design/Practical Experience, Internship, and Non-Graded (NG) will not be included in this list.
4. Examination Venue/ Platform	• The Office of Academic Affairs will provide Examination Venue details for offline examinations by allocating classrooms according to the strength of students in that course. • For online examinations, the Office of Academic Affairs will use the Google Meet platform.
5. Seating Arrangement	• Seating of offline students in a classroom will be managed and taken care of by the Course Instructor and Invigilators (TAs) in the allocated examination room. • The students will sit in an Odd-Even pattern; for example, students of one subject will sit in an Odd row and the students of another subject will sit in an Even row. It will be the responsibility of the Invigilators and students to make sure that no student of the same subject is sitting beside each other.
6. Invigilator (TA) Allocation	• The offline examinations will be managed by the Course Instructor, Teaching Assistants (TA), and Department Staff. No centrally allocated TA will be assigned for offline examinations. The Instructor will oversee administration and logistics, while the TAs will assist with collecting and distributing answer sheets, managing seating arrangements, taking attendance, collecting the answer sheets after the completion of the examination, handing over the answer sheets with attendance sheets to the Instructor, and other support as instructed by the course instructor. • For online examinations, the Office of Academic Affairs will allocate Invigilators and will provide the Google Meet links to the students & duty proctors a few days before the examination.

7. Examination Material	• The Office of Academic Affairs will provide Answer Sheets and other materials for each subject. • The Office will also provide a blank attendance sheet format to the Instructor in which the Invigilator/TA will take attendance. • The answer sheets will be available in the LHC Office for examinations scheduled in the LHC, and in the department office for examinations scheduled in the Department Classrooms. The LHC and department staff members are requested to coordinate and cooperate.
8. Examination Clash or Overload	• If any student is having an examination clash with another examination or has more than three examinations in a day (in Minor) and has more than two examinations in a day (in Major), then s/he will discuss the same with any one Course Instructor (preferably the one with less class strength) and request rescheduling. • The Instructors will shift/reschedule his/her examination to a new date & time within the examination dates. • The instructors will be required to inform the office of Academic Affairs through an email at examhelp@iitj.ac.in for the office to reschedule the examination to a new classroom.
9. Examination Malpractice	During the Quiz, Test, Examination or in any other evaluation process, if any student found using Unfair Means or indulge in Malpractices or any other unacceptable means as mentioned in the Academic Regulation or as identified by the Course Instructor/Flying Squad/Invigilator/On Duty Staff/Security Personnel, the matter will be reported as per the below steps: • The matter will be noted by the Instructor/Identifier with evidence. • A written letter will be taken from the student by the Instructor/Identifier stating the incident. • The answer sheet of the accused will be confiscated with remarks on it, and a new answer sheet will be provided. The instructor will keep both the answer sheets with them until the matter is investigated by the Competent Authority.

	• The matter will be reported to the Examination Cell on the same day of the incident at examhelp@iitj.ac.in for further action and reporting of the matter to the Disciplinary Action Committee (DAC).
10. Open Book Examination	In case of an Open Book Examination, the Course Instructor will inform students and the Examination Cell at least 7 days before the examination so that no other examination is scheduled in that room.
11. Take Home Examination	In case of a Take Home Examination, the Course Instructor will take prior approval from the Dean of Academic Affairs and will inform the students and Examination Cell at least 7 days before the examination.
12. Change in Examination	The examinations must be taken on the scheduled date. For unforeseen reasons, prior approval must be taken for rescheduling of the examination.
13. Bio-Break in Examination	No bio-break will be allowed to any students for the first 45 minutes of the examination, except for medical conditions/treatment cases where it is necessary. The instructor will decide and allow accordingly. No two students of the same course will be allowed for a bio-break at the same time from the same classroom. Students are required to maintain discipline/silence during bio-break and avoid using any unfair means of examination, including discussions.
14. Makeup Examination	Makeup Examination may be requested by the student if s/he has missed a Minor Examination with genuine reasons as mentioned in the guidelines available on Page No. 8 of this document.
15. I grade Examination	I grade may be requested by the student if s/he has missed a Major Examination with genuine reasons as per Clause 5.1 of the Academic Regulation.

Examination Guidelines for Course Instructors

1. The Course Instructor will reach the Examination Venue at least 10 minutes prior to the commencement of the examination. If, due to any unavoidable circumstances, a Course Instructor is unable to report, s/he should depute a faculty member as a substitute for the duty and will inform the Examination Cell at examhelp@iitj.ac.in.
2. The offline examinations will be managed by Course Instructors with their Teaching Assistants (TA) and Department Staff.
3. The Instructor/Invigilators will make the necessary announcements to the students, asking them to keep their mobile phones, smart watches, any electronic device, and reading material/bags outside the examination hall.
4. The Course Instructor will distribute the Question Paper to the students in the offline examinations with the assistance of other Invigilators and upload the question paper for online students if the examination is scheduled in hybrid/online mode. In case the examination of a subject is organized in multiple classrooms, the Course Instructor will share the question papers with invigilators of the respective classrooms and must brief the invigilators about the pattern of the examination and permitted/not permitted materials during the examination such as a calculator, notes or printed articles/notes in case of open book examination.
5. The Course Instructor/Invigilators will take attendance of the students and will be kept by the Course Instructor.
6. The Course Instructor will keep a sharp vigil on all the students in the examination room, and in case a student is found to be adopting unfair means, action must be taken immediately as mentioned above in the General Guidelines for Examination. This must be immediately informed to the Examination Cell through email.
7. The Course Instructor/Invigilators will make sure to collect all the answer copies after the examination is over.

Examination Guidelines for Students

1. The offline students must reach the examination venue 10 minutes before the commencement of the examination and occupy their seats in the classroom allocated for the examination. The online student must join the examination link 5 minutes before the commencement of the examination.
2. The students will check the seat & desk and ensure that there are no stray pieces of paper, etc. lying under the desk or shelf. If there is any piece of paper, it should be handed over to the Invigilator before the commencement of the examination.
3. Students must bring/show institute ID Card during the offline/online examination. The classroom entry/online appearance will be restricted without the ID Card.
4. The students must refrain from carrying Mobile Phones, Smart Watches or any other Electronic Devices inside the Examination Venue. The online students must refrain from using Headphones, Animated Background, Multiple Devices. If any student is found to be possessing these items after the start of the examination, then it will be treated as Examination Malpractice.
5. Students appearing in the online mode of examination must keep their camera ON and share the screen during the whole examination. Students must be ready with a power backup/charger/stable internet connection to avoid any interruption during the examination. If a student is disconnected for more than 2 minutes, his/her attendance will not be counted.
6. The offline students will bring only the required stationery material and transparent water bottles to the examination venue.
7. Sharing of calculators/stationery in the examination hall is strictly prohibited and will be treated as per the provisions of the Disciplinary Action. Please follow the Instructor's guidelines regarding the use of calculators.
8. No two students of the same course shall go to the washroom/toilet at the same time. The offline students will not be allowed to leave the examination hall during the First 45 Minutes of the examination except in medical emergency cases.
9. The students must refrain from gathering inside the examination building before or after the examination, indulging in any unfair means, discussing a question with other students, passing the answer sheet to another student, carrying written/printed study material related to the examination, writing on handkerchiefs or body, communicating with other students outside the examination room during the examination or reading or discussing inside the toilet.
10. Any violation of the above will be treated as Examination Malpractice and will be reported to the Disciplinary Action Committee (DAC). In all such cases, no excuse will be entertained.

Examination Guidelines for the Invigilators / Proctors/ TAs

1. The Invigilators (for offline duty) will report to the examination venue as instructed by their Course Instructor at least 15 minutes prior to the commencement of the examination. The Proctors (for online duty) will receive an Invigilation Email to join the examination link at least 05 minutes before the commencement of the examination.
2. The Online Invigilators and Proctors must check the examination details shared with them before every examination and note the examination date & time carefully. Offline Invigilators will report to the Course Instructor wherever the duty is allotted. For Online Proctors, the link for online examination duty will be mentioned in the Online Student Mapping sheet shared by the Office of Academic Affairs well in advance, and a Google Meet invitation link will also be sent through email.
3. The Invigilators should also note the name of the Course Instructor and the room number where the Instructor will be present. In case the examination is being organized in multiple rooms, the Invigilators will meet the Course Instructor to take note of any special instructions to be followed during the examination.
4. The Invigilators will collect the answer copies, extra sheets, and attendance sheets available at the Control Room of the Lecture Hall Building / Office of the respective Department and distribute the same among the students 05 Minutes before the commencement of the examination.
5. The Invigilators/Proctors must announce the Do's and Don'ts during the examination in consultation with the Course Instructor before the start of the examination.
6. The Invigilators will take the attendance of students in the provided attendance sheet format and collect the examination copies after the examination is over, carefully count the number of collected answer copies, tally the count against the number of students present in the room, and submit the same to the Instructor. The Proctors of online duty will fill in the attendance details of online students in the Excel sheet shared by the Office of Academic Affairs in the Invigilation Duty email.
7. The Invigilators will not leave the Examination Hall until the examination is over and students have left the premises. Similarly, the Proctors will not leave the Online Examination until all the students have submitted/uploaded their answer sheet. For online examinations, the Proctors will ensure that the web camera of online students is switched ON for the entire examination and that they are not using any unfair means.
8. The Invigilators will not bring any reading material or a laptop during the examination duty and must avoid answering/making phone calls during the examination.
9. If, due to any unavoidable circumstances, an Invigilator/Proctor is not able to report for duty or is on sudden leave, s/he should provide a replacement for the duty and inform the Course Instructor of that course. The Online Proctor will inform the Examination Cell at examhelp@iitj.ac.in well in advance.
10. If an Invigilator/Proctor does not report for his/her duty or reports late for the invigilation duty, it will be considered contempt of duty, and the same will be forwarded to a competent authority for necessary action.

Examination Guidelines for Staff Members of Department Office

1. Examinations scheduled at the Department level will be taken care of by the Administrative/Technical Staff of the Department in coordination with the Classroom Management Staff deputed by the Office of Academic Affairs.
2. The Department Staff will go through the Time-Table and Other Examination Information shared by the Office of Academic Affairs before every examination and contribute to conducting smooth examinations in consultation with the Office of Academic Affairs.
3. The Department Staff will ensure that the premises are open at least 30 minutes before the start of the examination.
4. The Office of Academic Affairs will provide Blank Answer Copies, Extra Sheets, Threads, Duty Chart, Attendance Sheet, and other materials to the Department Office well in advance.
5. The Department Staff will check and count the examination-wise delivered materials and further instruct the security guard deputed at the department to guide the students toward the classroom where the examination is scheduled.
6. The Department Staff will ensure that the classroom furniture is not moved after the examination venue has been finalized. In case of any discrepancy, the same will be arranged/organized immediately.
7. The Department Staff will ensure that Invigilators/TAs have arrived on time and have received the answer copies.
8. The Department Staff will make sure to collect the unused materials and hand them over to the Office of Academic Affairs/LHC staff after the last examination.
9. The department must remain open during the Examination duration and coordinate with the Instructor/Invigilators in case any item is needed, such as Photocopy support, Extra sheets, Threads, Stapler, etc.
10. In case of any doubt or query, the Staff Member will immediately communicate with the Office of Academic Affairs staff member who will be deputed to that department for the entire examination duration.
11. When the examination of a course is organized in more than one classroom, the Department Staff will ensure that all rooms are opened on time and cleaned. If any lost/leftover items are found in the classroom after examination, it will be handed over to the security guard.
